Fund Manager Comment

The performance of the CSE indices in Nov 2023 reflected a mixed trend, with the ASPI experiencing a downturn of 0.50%, while the S&P SL20 Index showcased a recovery of 0.52%. The Fund's benchmark ASTRI reported a flat movement of 0.01%, while the Fund's increased 0.24% during the same period. During the month, 2024 Budget was presented with no major impact on equities. The bourse also did not react notably to the final Monetary Policy Review for 2023 which had a rate reduction of both SDFR and SLFR by 100 bps. The uncertainty over IMF's 2nd tranche diminished during the month and the confirmation is expected next month. Market activity exhibited an uptick with an average daily turnover of LKR 1,079 Mn vs LKR 891 Mn in the preceding month. Foreign activity escalated to LKR 8.4 Bn in Nov 2023. Foreign investors emerged as net buyers with a net foreign inflow of LKR 0.9 Bn. We expect a redirection of some fund inflows from fixed income to equities as a result of declining interest rates in the market. Moreover, with improved macroeconomic fundamentals and an anticipated rebound in economic activities due to declining lending rates, we foresee further potential for equities to re-rate higher in the medium term.
