Fund Manager Comment

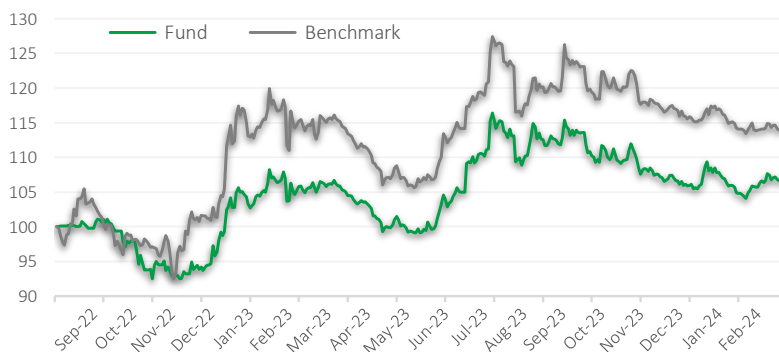

The performance of the CSE in Feb 2024 reflected a positive movement, with the ASPI experiencing a gain of 3.30%, while the S&P SL20 Index witnessed a gain of 4.86%. The fund's benchmark Insurance Sector Total Return Index (INSTRI) increased 0.85% while the Fund increased 3.07% during the same period. The benchmark index is mainly constituted by Ceylinco Insurance PLC Voting (CINS.N) and Non-Voting (CINS.X) shares which jointly constitutes more than 60% of index weight. With regard to sector specific catalysts, the steep decline in market interest rates during the month was a positive for the sector which could lead to possible marked to market gains on their bond portfolios. However the sector didn't react to it in a notable manner. With regard to the overall market, the positive sentiment was largely driven by better than anticipated earnings reported by key listed corporates for 4Q2023 quarter, above average dividends declared by several key listed companies and significant drop in market interest rates. On future outlook, though there are few concerns in the short run including delays in External Debt Restructuring, we continue to remain bullish on equities in the medium term on the back of declining interest rate environment and improved macro-economic fundamentals.
