Primary Risk Profile of the Fund

Given the underlying investment mix of Shariah compliant corporate securities with tenors up to 12 months, the risk profile of the Fund is low. However, some of the risks that investors coming into this Fund should consider are provided below.

Interest Rate Risk : The value of interest bearing assets may fluctuate as a result of changes in interest rates.

Credit Risk : The companies in which the Fund may invest may have their credit rating downgraded, fail financially or be unwilling or unable to make timely payments of interest or principal, thereby reducing the value of the Fund's portfolio and its income.

Liquidity and Valuation Risk : Certain of the Fund's investments may be exposed to liquidity risk due to low trading volume, lack of a market maker, or legal restrictions limiting the ability of the Fund to sell particular securities at an advantageous price and/or time.

Currency Risks : Fluctuation in exchange rates may affect investors who have to convert fund returns from LKR to other currencies.

Legal, Tax and Regulatory Risk – Legal, tax and regulatory changes could occur during the term of the Fund that may adversely affect the Fund, its investee companies or investors. The tax laws in Sri Lanka may change, possibly with retroactive effect. Investors should review carefully the Key Investor Information Document (KIID) and consult with their tax advisers regarding the specific tax and other consequences of investing in the Fund.

Managed Portfolio Risk – The Manager's view on interest rates, the choice of investment strategies or choice of specific securities may be unsuccessful, thereby causing the Fund to not perform at optimal level or to lose money.

Large Investor risk : Securities of unit trusts may be purchased and sold by "large" investors, such as institutions, funds of funds and investment portfolios. If a large investor redeems a portion or all of its investment from the Fund, some investments may have to be prematurely uplifted with penalty or require to be sold in the secondary market at prevailing rates, thus reducing the fund's potential return. Conversely, if a large investor was to increase its investment in a fund, the fund may have to hold a relatively large position in cash for a period of time while the portfolio advisor attempts to find suitable investments. This could also negatively impact the performance of the fund and hence impact the return for other investors in the fund.
